NAMIBIA

Namibia- a country of breathtaking beauty.

Rated as one of the most beautiful countries on earth, Namibia is any hunter's paradise.

Namibia is located in southwest Africa and is distinguished by the Namib Desert along its Atlantic coastline. The country is well known for its extreme contrast with desert meeting ocean, bushveld, savannahs and rocky mountains.

The country has a diverse wildlife; boasting significant populations. This is due to the fact that animal populations are controlled by a fine balance of Hunting & Conservation working hand in hand.

Namibia will give you a challenging hunt with vast array of Wildlife species.

It is hunter friendly country that is conservation oriented and has been an example of how things should be done.

Our lodges and staff allow the hunter complete relaxation before and after the hunt.

Sharing our experiences around a flaming camp fire, under a star-covered sky and hearing the distant call of a predator will remind you that there is no place like Africa.

After indulging in mouth-watering dishes, which often include a dish prepared from the hunt, you can end the fun-filled day in the comfort of one of our luxurious en-suite chalets.

Our environmentally-friendly tented camps offer stunning scenery and views of grazing wild animals. They are perfect for short stays or when you'd like to break-away from it all.

We pride ourselves on a good standing with local government and hunting associations, both local and international.

SPAIN

Spain is One of the favorite destinations... so much beauty, culture, dining adventure, and of course, world renowned hunting!

With 4 different varieties of ibex (Gredos Ibex, Beceite Ibex, Sierra Nevada or Southeastern Ibex and Ronda Ibex), 2 varieties of chamois (Pyrenean Chamois and Cantabrian Chamois), and the Mallorcan Boc, Spain is a MECA for Capra hunters.

From north to south, east to west, the country is a goat hunter's dream.

The Spanish mountains hold some of the most desired Capra hunts on earth. Leave some boot tracks in "las Sierras de España" with us. It's worth every step. In addition to the great Capra hunting, Spain also offers up much much more.

For the sheep hunters, beautiful pure Iberian mouflon ram the oak and cork covered hills and hearty aoudad live in abundance in the rough mountains of southern Spain.

For the deer hunters, Iberian red stag that rival those of their eastern European and New Zealand brethren, and plentiful roe deer and huge palmed fallow deer are in abundance. Round it out with European wild boar, you can see that a hunter can keep busy with his bucketlist for many visits to the sunny peninsula.

Take it from us, as we consider Spain to be one of our all time favorite destinations, it is a MUST do trip, whether once or as much as the heart desires. It truly is a hunting destination in a class of its own.

Here's what Larry Weishuhn has to say:

When it comes to hunting Africa, be it plains game or dangerous game, the Professional Hunter and outfit I go to is Japsie Blaauw and his Dzombo Safaris. I've hunted Cape buffalo and leopard, as well as a variety of plains game with Japsie and his fellow PH, Jacobus Wasserfall. Dzombo has access to and hunts some of the best and finest hunting land in all of Africa, from comfortable camps with excellent facilities and food. Game on the properties hunted by Dzombo Safaris is not only plentiful but also extremely high quality, as are the hunts for them. Professional, friendly, and proficient are only a few of the many good things I can say about them.
